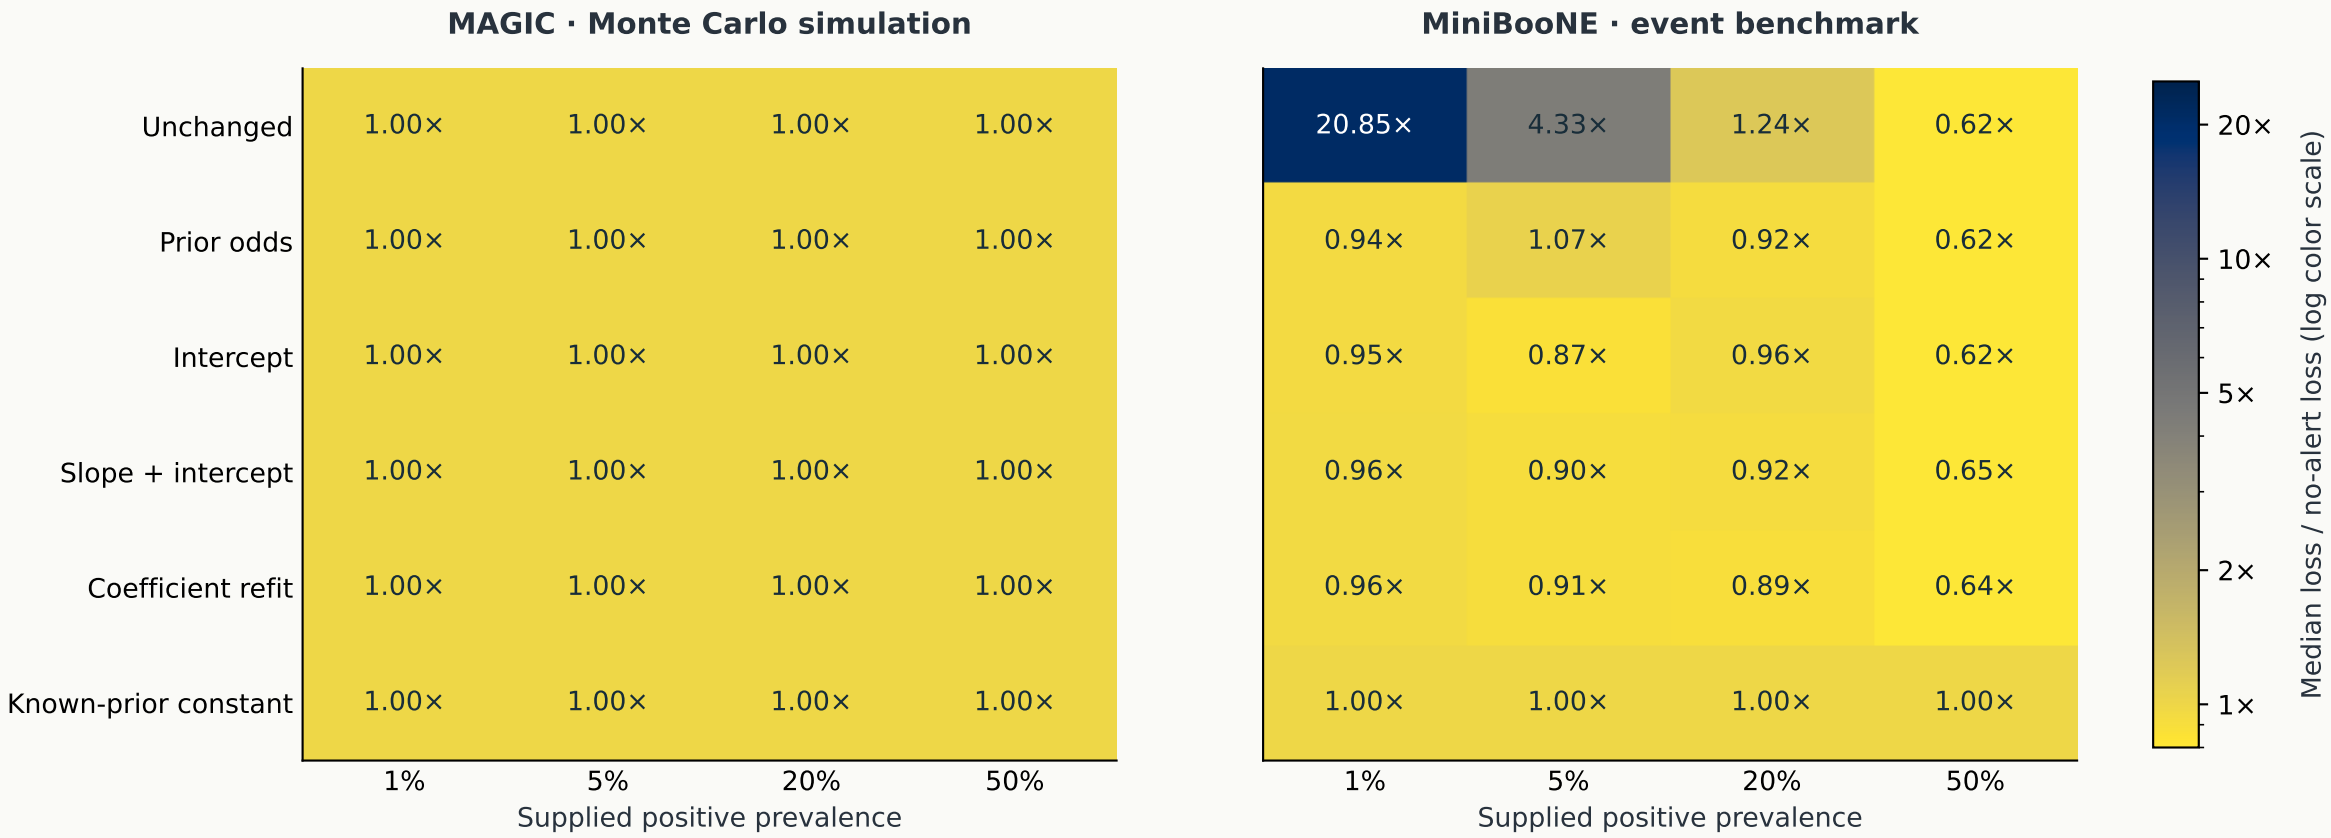
Better probabilities do not automatically create useful alerts

CONTROLLED PRIOR-SHIFT SCENARIOS | N1 corrected retrospective | FP cost 10, FN cost 1; alert p ≥ 10/11



1× equals flagging nothing; above 1× is worse under this hypothetical cost. Cells show medians across five overlapping splits.
MAGIC adaptations flag no events at q ≤ 20%. Probability improvements alone do not establish detector utility or financial savings.